We hope to be in heaven where no tears are shed.

He leaves a number of friends and relatives to mourn his death. He was tenderly laid to rest in the cemetery at St. Johns church. Weep not, loved ones, but press onward to the land where families will be reunited and partings and heartaches never come. Trust God, who is able to comfort in every sad hour.—Written by a Friend.

Couple Are Married

ENTERPRISE, July 14.—Aubrey Ellis, of Nashville, formerly of Enterprise, and Miss Evelyn Chambers, of Columbia, staged a double wedding all by themselves Saturday and now they are really and truly married if the two tieings of the connubial knot will make it secure.

Mr. Ellis obtained his bride and marriage license in Columbia on Saturday morning. Returning to Enterprise they were married in the pastorium by the Rev. C. S. Thomas, pastor of the Baptist.

Twith Mr. Horn shooting balls over the plate that fairly sizzled.

Besides catching a fine game, Catcher Day was a whale at the bat, walloping two terrific smashes into the river. One ball was lost forever. The whole team fielded in fine style, Eidson at first, Seymore at second and Jimmie George at short pulling off play after play that were really brilliant. Mitchell in center field and Thomason in right also made some nifty catches. The whole team was playing "heads-up" baseball that was refreshing to the local fans.

Only seven innings were played,

the pastorium by the Rev. C. S.
Thomas, pastor of the Baptist church. While visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ellis, the groom was called on the telephone a few hours later by the minister, who recalled that a marriage ceremony had to be performed in the county where the license was purchased, or else be illegal.

The pastorium by the Rev. C. S.
Thomas, pastor of the Baptist refreshing to the local fans.
Only seven innings were played, in order that the second game, with Enterprise, could be played. The score at the end of the seventh inning was, Elba, 5, Brantley, 2.
In the game with Enterprise it was necessary to make several shifts in the Elba lineup. Henry Clark was on the mound and Day did the receiving. Young was on of license was purchased, or else be lilegal.

For the second time that day Mr. Ellis and Miss Chambers started out to get married. Collecting the minister and a party of friends they motored down the Enterprise Dothan highway to the Houston County line, where for the second time they were pronounced man and wife.

Clark was on the mound and Day did the receiving. Young was on first and Donaldson was stationed at third.

It proved to be a free-hitting and more or less loose-fielding game, in which Elba had much the best of it. This was another abbreviated affair of seven innings and resulted in another victory for the locals by a score of 11 to 7.

Colonel Woolsey Finnell, candidate for Governor, spoke at the court house last Friday afternoon to a good-sized audience, considering the unusually warm weather and the threatening thunderstorm, which broke with great fury soon after Col. Finnell started speaking.

Rev. D. E. Marietta, pastor of the Methodist Church, introduced the speaker with a few appropriate and pleasing words.

Colnel Finnell is at the head of the State Highway Department and has many friends in this section who feel kindly toward him on account of the exvice rendered following the flood, although he stated in his speech that he did not each any crodil for superposition of the speech that he did not each any crodil for superposition and the country and each in his speech that he did not each any crodil for such service, as in the gubernatorial rendered for the farmers will carry the county by a tremendous major, the county by The county

The Colonel emphasized the need of economy in government in Although he shadly and the condition of the people's money than in position, the number of State employees to the minimum actually required to carry on the State's business.

In discussing the tax question, Col. Finnell said that the financial condition of the people of Alabama makes it imperative that no unjust tax be levied, and that our slogan must be: "Not more tax but moor for our tax." He said, "This can and must be accomplished by all those who are and must be accomplished by all those who are and must be accomplished by all those who are and must be accomplished by all those who are and must be accomplished by all those who are tax but more and must be accomplished by all those who are and writer to carry of the State's business, end that those who are subject to carry of the State's business, end that the financial condition of the people of Alabama and must be accomplished by all those who are tax but the people of the state of the state of the state of the people so more than and of the people so more than and of the people's money than his precent position of the people's money than his precent position of the people's money than his precent position and that he hald that he hala dust and provided that the financial condition of the people's money than his present position of the people's money than his present position of the people's money than his present position of the people's money than his present position. Every state school from the largest to the small rural community school must be expanded to meet the demands made upon them. Every boy and girl in the State has a legal right to an adequate education that will fit them for their life work. An opportunity to receive this education must be provided by the State.

"Mr. Chapman stated that so far as he knew, the storm covered a small area, and that others in that community suffered damages even for carrying out this program: (a) An increased gasoline tax which would be a burden on our people, and (b) a bond issue that can, and must be, cared for with the funds now available.

"January. 1931, there will be approximately $2,000,00 available for caring for an additional bond issue. This is over and above funds and pharmacists to be forced to go and pharmacists to be forced to go there store, to complete their.

1:00 A. M.—The small platform on the square will be open to any and all candidates who wish to make a speech. 1:30 P. M .- Boxing at the large platform as soon as the shade covers the floor. We do not have any bouts arranged, but there will be more boxers on hand than usual and we will have many good bouts. If you know of a good fighter, bring him along and we will have someone to match him. We also hope to have some good music before the boxing begins. Buck dancing will be in order if anyone will dance. 2:00 P. M. to 6 P. M. Free picture show to all maimed people. If you have lost an eye, toe, finger, or any other part of your body, you will be gladly admitted without any admission charge.

4:00 P. M .- Preaching on the small platform on the square by any and all preachers who wish to talk to the crowd. If you are a preacher, or if you want to preach, just come right ahead and go to it. There will be a crowd and you should do some good.
